EDITORIAL BREVITIES.

AND worst of all follies, the Republicans are beginning to talk about carrying this Congressional District. They have arranged to bring out an Independent Democrat, if their plans work, and already are they casting about for a Republican runner. Bill Smith and Dick Badger have both been sounded, and declined, and now the indications point to Colonel Tazewell R. Hargrove, of Granville. But the schemers will fail. The District is more hopelessly Democratic now than ever.

OUR Democratic champions in Wake gave their Republican opponents a black eye at the first meeting, and by the time the canvass is over the Radicals will be frazzled out. Messrs. Snow and Stamps are the professional speakers on the Democratic side, and are making the most splendid impression. Mr. Snow has much improved since his appearance before the people two years ago, when he made the most brilliant campaign ever accomplished by one of his age. Mr. Stamps is a solid young man of steady growth, and pleases the sturdy people of Wake. He has the making of a complete man in him, and a brilliant career open before him. The Democrats of Wake have come to feel proud of their ticket. None of them are slouches, and Messrs. Stevenson, Olive and Richardson, of the Legislative ticket are none of them slouches. Their prudence and speeches tell on the plain, practical country people. The county candidates are working like men who understand their business, and Colonel Russ is just a rousicating.

Correspondence of the News.

YADKINVILLE, July 6th.

The Democrats of this Senatorial district met in convention at Rockford in Surry county on yesterday for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Senate. Richmond Pearson, Esq., of Yadkin, was nominated on the first ballot by a majority of the townships of the two counties, which nomination was afterwards made unanimous.

The Democratic Convention of the county of Yadkin which assembled in the courthouse at Yadkinville to-day, was large, harmonious and enthusiastic.

The following gentlemen were nominated for the House of Representatives and the various county offices.

For House of Representatives, James M. Burgess; Sheriff, J. H. Myres; Clerk of the Superior Court, J. A. Hampton; Register of Deeds, A. H. Thomasson; Treasurer, J. H. Jenkins; Surveyor, W. H. Brandon; Coroner, J. H Poindexter.

The ticket brought out by the Democrats this year is one of the strongest ever presented in this county since the war and we have strong hopes of being able to elect every man on it.

METHODIST CONFERENCE.

The Wilmington Conference—In Session at Whiteville—Dr. Burkhead Presiding—Proceedings.

Correspondence of the News.

WHITEVILLE, N. C., July 11.

The Wilmington District Conference of the Methodist E. Church South convened in this place to-day at 9 a m.

Rev. L. S. Burkhead, D. D., arrived per railroad in good time, and took the chair of the Conference as per the law of the church, and opened the deliberations by reading the holy scriptures, singing and prayer. At the proper time he also delivered an excellent address to the Conference, somewhat explanatory of his plan of conducting the proceedings, and insisted on the importance of a right spirit in all the discussions and work of the conference. It was well received. The Doctor is looking well and seems to be very full of his work as Presiding Elder of this large and important District. The Wilmington District is composed of about fifteen travelling and fifteen local preachers, together with about sixty laymen—four from each pastoral charge. Father Gray, the Rev. Henry, a superannuated preacher from Orange county, the Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, D D., the very popular editor-in-chief and publisher of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, and the Rev. James J. Camden, from Robeson Circuit, Fayetteville District, are also in attendance on the conference.

The conference sits with open doors, and a goodly number of the people are in attendance upon the doings of the meeting.

Most of the preachers and some delegates from nearly each charge in the district, are reported present, at this, the morning session, of the first day. Some are reported absent unavoidably.

We write immediately upon the adjournment of the morning session. Not much has yet been done besides enrolling the members, and other usual preliminaries. Dr. Burkhead and the Rev. J. T. Lyon are on the committee of public worship. The conference has just adjourned, at 11 a. m., for preaching by the Rev. Lemon Shell.

Whiteville would be quite a pleasant place if it had a good chance, but the weather is so warm that to "keep cool" is a pretty hard job. We, however, have an occasional breeze which is very delightful.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The regular order of the day, whether the Conference will have committees or not. The matter on which the conference adjourned was taken up, and after a brief discussion a motion to have committees prevailed.

A few charges were reported on by the pastors and brethren and show the various interests of the Church to be in a healthy condition. C.

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.

Lecture by Judge R. P. Dick—The Bible as a Text Book.

By Special Reporter to the News.

CHAPEL HILL, July 11.

After singing by the entire school, under the directions of Prof. Charley Wilson, Dr. Battle introduced the orator, Judge Robt. P. Dick, of Greensboro, who said: Ladies and Gentlemen of the Normal School—my Fellow-Countrymen:—I feel a deep interest in this University. It is my Alma Mater—the beneficent mother of my educational life. Chapel Hill is one of the homes of my boyhood. His references to his college life were affectionate and tender—meeting with much applause. Referred to the success of the University, and to the manly display of taste, culture and learning of the young gentlemen who appeared at our last commencement. Complimented the students for their sobriety and gentlemanly bearing. The people of North Carolina have willed the University to succeed. Abrogated the statement of demagogues that this is the place for the rich men's sons. Teaching used to be an art, at least in this State; now it is dignified as a science, and justly so. Get uniformity of individual systems, and we will have a State system. Expressed the hope that the next legislature will have the liberality, patriotism, manliness and State pride to make the Normal School a permanent institution. He then announced as his theme

THE BIBLE AS A TEXT BOOK.

Opposed to denominational control in State affairs. The Bible is a part of our government, of our constitution, the foundation stone of all free institutions. All must depend on that book, which is the great magna charta of all right. It was written for study. It is sufficient for the simplest understanding, and difficult enough for the most subtle reasoners and profoundest intellects. Free Bible for free people. The Bible ought to be used in courses of education. What is education but the expanding and drawing out of the faculties given us by the Creator. No education is complete unless all faculties are cultivated. There are four branches of education, physical, moral, intellectual, spiritual. Bible gives directions for the expansion of these four natures.

This book teaches soberness and chastity, labor and rest. This is physical. It is the grandest system of moral philosogy ever written, and the most sublime code of morals ever penned. Judge Dick spoke mainly of the Bible as it is connected with the intellect. Some say the Bible is not a book of science. True it is in the physical world, rather in the moral and spiritual. God made made another book of science. The great universe, a great laboratory, great harvest field, great work shop of nature, these constitute the book of science. True science does not collide with religion. They assist each other. Darkness makes the Bible more bright. Bible promotes science. The Bible did array with the deductive system of scientific research and gave birth to the inductive. The speaker showed that the Bible teaches history, law, government, internal political life, literature, art, in fact every thing that elevates man and gives him noble ideas of the true, the good and the beautiful.

Judge Dick has a graceful delivery. His voice is good. He spoke without manuscript and his oration was filled with gems of rare literary brilliancy—of a historic and poetic nature. His oration was beautiful, showing how from childhood the Bible is taught, and how through the raging ebbs of the tide of life, till the waters of our days break in silence on the shores of death, it is studied, it is a comfort, a shield, a staff, a pillar in death.

The committee appointed to draft a constitution for the Teachers' Association reported to-day. A permanent organization will be made this week.

THE COUNTY CANVASS.

Large Gathering at Lashley's Yesterday.

By Special Reporter to the News.

The second day of the county canvass passed off yesterday at Lashley's in the happiest manner. A crowd numbering between two hundred and fifty and three hundred, in the proportion of about two whites and one darkey, assembled, and at 11 o'clock the speaking was begun by one of the Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives. He spoke of the flattering manner of his nomination by the most enthusiastic and largest convention which had ever assembled in Wake; of the importance of the coming election, and the necessity of having judges whose power could not be exhausted. The Republicans have no ticket in the field; their policy was to watch and wait. He arraigned the Republican party for countenancing the unlawful imprisonment of persons and the Hayes fraud, and said if it had not been for the moderation of the Democrats, the country would have been plunged into another civil war. He then addressed himself to the colored people present, telling them that it would be a very hard struggle to keep the ballot in their hands, as the Republicans were desirous of taking it from them.

STEWART ELLISON,

a republican candidate for the House, next spoke. He said he tried to be an honest man Complimented the democratic candidates for judges of the Supreme Court in the highest terms. He had hoped that the Kirk war was buried in oblivion, but that Mr Richardson had gone on to prejudice the minds of the people in regard to it, and that if it had not been for the ku klux there would have been no such war. It was to the interest of both whites and blacks to live harmoniously and protect each other's interests. The weight of the government rested on the tax payers, and they were the persons to send to the legislature. The professions of law and medicine came in for no flattering share of his remarks. Civil rights, &c., was a humbug, and was only spoken of to create prejudice.

MR. E. R. STAMPS,

another of the Democratic candidates for the House, followed. He said he represented a great party; he represented principles, not men. Referring to the charge that Magnin had made of his being a carpet-bagger from the fact of his having been born in Virginia, said it was hard to say what a carpet-bagger was, unless he was a Judas Iscariot—a thief against whom the people would rise in their manhood and stamp the life out of him as a viper.

Mr. Stamps charged that a Republican had said that having Ellison on the ticket was a great drag on the party. That merely showed the bent of the Republicans; they only wanted the colored vote. He had wished the memories of the war had been barred by the statutes of limitation. He would not argue about the war, but about the issues of the present day. He had not intended to speak of Hayes, but as Ellison had admitted that the Radicals had cheated the Democrats, and justified it on the ground that the Democrats would have done the same thing; he proceeded to give Ellison a rasping. Magnin then got a severe castigation. Mr. S. said Magnin found it necessary to get up recommendations before starting on the campaign, and went on to give the circumstances under which Magnin had got a recommendation from Gray & Stamps, and said that although Magnin knew that he (Mr. S.) had not signed the recommendation he went about on all occasions stating that he had. The speaker then dropped matters of a personal nature and gave a history of the government of North Carolina for the last decade; showed the difference in the amount of expenditures under the management of the respective parties; and read a statement showing the taxes paid on various articles which were solely for the benefit of Northern manufacturers. The address was closed by an exhortation to the people to exert themselves in the cause of good government.

BOB WYNNE,

Republican candidate for the House, followed. He did not contemplate "making of a speech." Thanked the people for the confidence which they had always bestowed on him; he was not after pay, but did everything for the benefit of the people; was in favor of building up the laboring man and protecting the interests of capital; would, if elected, vote for Senator Merrimon; was opposed to civil rights, and denounced the present system of taxation.

The speaker had an excellent opinion of his powers as a prophet and labored all through the speech attempting to pun on his name.

COL. L. D. STEPHENSON,

one of the Democratic candidates for the House, was the next speaker. He had not sought the position, but being called, cheerfully accepted; reverted to the past disasters of the Democratic party in Wake and of the interest taken in the campaign of 1874 and the success of the party in that year; reviewed his course in the Legislature referring to the charges that he had been recreant to the wishes of the party in advocating the call of the convention and in voting for a bill to relieve Tim Lee's sureties of his indebtedness to the county.

He disposed of the first charge by stating that he had fought the call of the convention in caucus, but that after the caucus had passed upon the matter he had voted for it; and of the second by showing that the bill was not to relieve of indebtedness, but was only for relief from the forfeitures incurred, provided the indebtedness was paid. The speaker was not pledged to vote for any one for Senator and would abide the wishes of the majority of the Democratic party.

a Republican candidate for the House, said it was necessary for him to get recommendations, and knowing this, had got the recommendations of some of the best men in Raleigh, giving the names of a number of prominent Democratic gentlemen. Spoke of the charge of his being a defaulter, preferred by Mr. Olive on the previous day, who asked why he had not been prosecuted and sent to the penitentiary. He repelled imputation of his being a carpet-bagger. There were some Republicans opposed to his election, but they were the soulless tools of soulless corporations. He favored the remodeling of the Laborer's Lien and making the taxation exemption $200. Had formed no opinion on the abolition of the poll tax.

MR. H. C. OLIVE,

The last Democratic candidate for the House, followed. He called attention to the record of the two parties and to the policy of centralization adopted by the Radicals, the revenue system and its concomitant evils, and the expenditures of the government of N C under Radical rule. After regretting the necessity of entertaining personal matters reiterated the charge against Magnin of being a defaulter and lashed him for shirking the question of the abolition of the poll tax.

MR. J.J. FERRELL,

The last Republican candidate for the House, then took the stand and went on, as he expressed, it, to talk of home affairs. He spoke of the difficulty which the Republican Treasurer elected in 1875 experienced about his bond and of his final loss of the place and the appointment of Neathery. He wanted the Criminal Court abolished and the magistrates to be given jurisdiction in such cases; opposed the privilege tax and favored the election of a tax collector by the people; the compromising of the State debt; and the public school system, but would not commit himself on the question of the poll tax.

MR. G. H. SNOW,

The Democratic nominee for Senator, followed. Mr. Snow said he came before the people as the only candidate who has any call save only his own volition; he had not an opponent from any legitimate source. Mr. Bledsoe is an independent Democrat on his own nomination. The speaker read an affidavit from Bledsoe in which he Bledsoe had sworn he could not get a fair trial in Wake. He then put it to the voters how a man could ask the suffrages of the people after making an affidavit like the above. Mr. Bledsoe's position on the poll tax was next attacked and demolished. The speaker made an eloquent appeal to the people to cease all bickerings. Mr. Snow said the special tax bonds were conceived in iniquity and brought forth in hell, and was opposed to paying a cent on them. He opposed the abolition of the poll tax but wants the courthouse rings cut down. Mr. Snow charged that Bledsoe's candidature was a Republican dodge planned in Holden's office in the city of Raleigh.

COL. J. A. MCDONALD,

Independent Republican candidate for the Senate, followed Mr Snow. He said he came before the people not as the nominee of any party or clique; he was a republican from principle; denied ever having worked for the nomination for a seat in the House. As between Merrimon and Vance he would support Merrimon. He is in favor of sustaining the poll tax because it educates the poor of both races. He claimed credit for getting the appropriation for the Chatham road, and was in favor of another road from Raleigh to the Seaboard.

MAJ. M. A. BLEDSOE,

the Independent democratic candidate for the Senate, made his usual speech, interspersed with matters of a personal nature.

After the conclusion of the speaking the candidates for the county offices made the usual announcements.

Donations to the N. C. Agricultural Society for the Premium List.

[Acknowleged by C. B. Denson, Secretary, in behalf of the Executive Committee.]

One of the most important Fairs ever held in North Carolina, and we may say in the Southern States, will take place at Raleigh in October next. Already the most favoring circumstances combine to assure us that the forthcoming display of the products, and assemblage of the people of North Carolina, will be such as to give it a high place in the long line of annual fairs which the society has successfully held, to the advantage of the farming and business interest and the welfare of the whole State.

It is desired especially to return thanks, through the generous aid of the press, to those friends of progress and improvement in North Carolina, who have generously contributed their manufactures or other goods, to the list of premiums to be distributed. It will be seen that articles of interest and value for all classes of our population will be found in the long list of donations in the Secretary's office, in many cases from remote States. These are to be awarded and delivered as premiums and the Committee trust that the fullest competition possible will be the greatest feature of the Fair. The articles mentioned will be assigned their appropriate places in the premium lists by the Committee, and the list will be issued as early as practicable after said assignment can be made. Persons desiring a copy are invited to send their addresses to the Secretary at Raleigh.

Our list begins with Messrs. Fisher & Norris, proprietors of the Eagle Anvil Works, of Trenton, N. J., who make their third annual contribution of anvils to the State Fair. This is especially gratifying to the friends of the Society, as it evidences an appreciation of the value of the relations of trade fostered by an exhibition. They send this year two of No. 2, two of No. 4 and two of No 6, making $31.50 in value.

W. L. Chamberlain, Esq., breeder of fine stock, Red Hook, N. Y., sends another Silesian Merino Buck. Mr. C. makes a specialty of these. The value of the animal forwarded last year was $30.

The Parrott Varnish Co., of Bridgeport, Conn., through H R Parrott, Esq, Secretary, donate 5 gallons each of six varieties, of their fine coach and car varnishes, amounting to 30 gallons, and reaching the handsome sum of $130 at factory rates. Their varnishes have been in use more than thirty years, and are standard goods. The donation will be attractively displayed in glass vessels, and will furnish some admirapremiums in the mechanical departments

One gross (4 oz) Patapsco Baking Powders and one gross assorted dry and fluid Flavoring Extracts, value (wholesale) $30, contributed by Messrs. Smith Hanway & Co., Wholesale Druggists, No. 8 South Howard Street, Baltimore. No city donates more freely to our Fair than Baltimore, and she maintains her reputation this year, with all her former liberality. The Patapsco Baking Powders are too well known to require comment.

One carpet, value to be hereafter stated, from Messrs. J. & C. Johnson, New York, dealers in dry goods, carpets, upholstry, &c. We hope to see this beautiful gift thus referred to, of an enterprising house in New York, awaraded as a premium for the skill and taste of some fair lady in the departments for household labor. We are assured that it will be well worth a keen contest.

Farther particulars will be given from time to time concerning the gifts in hand and those arriving. The Secretary will be glad to furnish any information desired.

A BALTIMORE LETTER.

Some Reflections on Party Disorganization.

Correspondence of the News.

BALTIMORE, July 11th, 1878.

Your very able and clear editorial of the 6th inst. merits the praise of all fair-minded members of the Democratic party and it most certainly will result in good to that party if its sentiments and manly utterances receive the attention they deserve. The position you take that "it is better that a party paper should depart from established usage, and become even the partisan of one man, than preserve the armed neutrality of its hand against every man of the Democratic faith" is peculiarly worthy of notice at the present time in North Carolina, while, strange to say, her children are so unnecessarily excited over a question that a single glance at the past, through the glass of justice, ought to convince them has but "one right side," which side is plainly and beautifully engraved by hallowed memories with the name of "Vance." It matters not how great and good Senator Merrimon is, nor how well he has served the State of North Carolina in Congress. The question is "was he the correct and true representative of the party that controled the State at the time he entered the Senate and did his election strengthen the Democratic party of North Carolina or disturb its organization?" If he was not the choice of the party and accepted the place, knowing this fact, he at that time, by the acceptance of the Senatorship virtually ignored party allegiance and his conduct merited the condemnation of all honest partisans in the State. Further, if his course, in accepting the Senatorship, had been demanded on the ground that it would strengthen the party, though he represented only a minority, it would have been excusable, but he knew at the time, and will not deny it, that his action was well calculated to sow seeds of discord throughout the Democratic body politic and seriously disorganize it. No sane man will deny but that his election has injured the Democratic party of the State and caused "Independents" (the representatives of minorities) to take heart and rush to the front, hoping they may be successful, as Senator M. was, by Republican votes and their minority of Democrats. "A partisan is a partisan" and any deviation from the principles and trusts of his faith, by him, justifies the party in ignoring and viewing him with distrust thereafter. It would be a weak and poorly organized party that permitted its members to combine, at pleasure, with its opponents and climb to success and then return to the fold and demand its support on the single ground "I was true to you though elected over your choice by your minority and enemies, and if you will be guided by the minority and re-elect me I will promise never to do unpartisan things again." The parties of the past and to-day in North Carolina differ essentially, and hence the precedents cited to justify the course of Senator Merrimon are not applicable or appropriate. When those precedents occurred the United States were intact, and law, tempered with love and equity and sustained by confidence, purity and reverence, ruled supreme throughout the land. Then war had not destroyed the autonomy of our dear old mother and infected her legislative halls with a species of men totally oblivious to every feeling calculated to command either respect or confidence, and such were, to a great extent, the men who, with a small minority of the true representatives of our people, elevated Senator Merrimon to a seat in the United States Senate, and in accepting it he is justified by his friends, on the grounds that this was done before. The choice of a party caucus may have been defeated in the legislature of North Carolina, before, but never by such votes as elected Merrimon. Before the Radical party reared its hideous head and polluted everything it touched in North Carolina, deviation from servile party service was sometimes pardonable, but since the days of radicalism honor should forbid any son of the State from co-operation or affiliation with it, for any purpose, until it has made amends for the past and given indisputable evidence of its devotion to the true interests of the State hereafter. Certainly, combining with it for personal promotion or accepting personal promotion by a combination with such a party, can not be within the province or conscience of a true Democrat, particularly when such a combination defeats the announced wishes of a large majority of that party.

Such, at random, are the views of a North Carolinian, and if done right I shall have honor of shaking hands with Senator Vance March 4th 1879.

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA.

Raleigh to Asheville in Seventeen Hours—Western North Carolina Railroad.

Letter to the News.

HENRY, July 10.

You will oblige me by calling attention to the fact that on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays a train on the Western North Carolina Railroad will make close connection at Salisbury with the Goldsboro and Raleigh train, leaving Salisburg at 12 o'clock at night, breakfast at Henry, and reaching Asheville by 11 a. m. Six hours sooner than the trip can be made by any other route.

JAS. W. WILSON,
President.

Robert W. Wynne.

Below is given the part taken by this Radical candidate in the Kirk war. Let the people remember that the militia was called out at the time when the barn burners were devastating the Southern part of the county, and to protect them, as was said, against the people whose barns had been burnt. It is reported that Mr. Wynne denies ever having paid a single man of that cut-throat gang, but the facts speak for themselves.

Extracts from the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners, of which Mr. Wynne was a member:

RALEIGH, N. C., April 29, 1870.

Ordered, that the County Treasurer pay Anthony Taylor fifteen dollars and sixty-seven cents, for services as militia man. (Muster roll filed.)

Ordered, that the County Treasurer pay Abram Scott one hundred and twelve dollars and eighty cents for provisions furnished Capt. Rosemond's Company.

Ordered, that the County Treasurer pay John Rosemond eighty dollars, as Captain in the militia called out in Wake county.

May 19, 1870.

Bond No. 12, amounting to two hundred and twenty-three dollars was issued to Chas. M. Farriss, for the use of the State.

June 18, 1870.

Ordered, that the County Treasurer pay to John Pointer fifteen dollars and sixty-seven cents, for services in the militia of Wake county.

Ordered, that the County Treasurer pay George Kelly seven dollars and forty-two cents, for services rendered in the militia of Wake county.

July 4th, 1870.

Ordered, that the County Treasurer pay to James Johnson eight dollars and forty-eight cents for services in the militia of Wake county.

At the same meeting similar orders were made, directing the Treasurer to pay to

William McDonald, (Serg't)	$18 45
Squire Reid,	15 67
Sidney Farrar,	7 42
Eldridge Jones	7 42
George Burnett,	15 67
Nathan Hopkins	7 42
Alvis Hackney,	15 67
and on Aug. 19, Ben Adkins,	7 42

Other payments were made by the Board at various meetings in the Spring and Summer of 1870, at which Mr. R. W. Wynne was not present. The above extracts are taken from the minutes of meetings at which Mr. Wynne appears from the record to have been present.

At Last.

Tighlman Cranford, the desperate white convict, after being three days in hiding, was discovered Thursday evening by a stone cutter employed at the penitentiary. It appears, from his statements, that Cranford had been hidden under a pile of stones until the morning of his discovery, when, by some means, he went into the upper floor of one of the new buildings in the main enclosure, and there secreted himself in a goods box. He was suffering greatly from hunger and thirst, having had only one drink of water during the entire time he lay hidden. He said he was suffering so much that he would have given himself up that night.

Cranford is perhaps the worst criminal in the penitentiary. He is a violent, dangerous man, and has been guilty of many crimes. Once he escaped from the pen, and has only been there since last Spring. Two hundred dollars were paid his captors at that time. He is feared by the guards. He is now securely confined, and will be so kept until his term of three years expires.

The Junior Debating Club.

The young members of this club discussed last evening, at Commons Hall, the question, "From which do we derive most pleasure, Anticipation or Possession?" The occasion drew quite an audience, composed of some of the elite. The President of the club, Master Joseph Ferrall, occupied the chair. The following members participated in the discussion: Masters Willie Bobbitt, Fred. Habel, Willie Andrews, in favor of "Anticipation;" George Gorman, George Andrews, Bainbridge Smith, "Possession."

The speeches were highly creditable, and the debaters were loudly and frequently applauded. At the close of the arguments, the judges decided the weight to be in favor of "Possession." The gold badge was then presented by Major Seaton Gales, in a few graceful remarks, to Master Willie Andrews, whose effort was adjudged the best of the evening.

W. H. Pace, Esq.

We publish the professional card of Mr. W. H. Pace, who has removed his office to the Bagley Building. Mr. Pace is a lawyer of great energy in the conduct of all business entrusted to him, and is fast acquiring marked distinction in his profession.

Gravitating to the Centre.

Murfreesboro Enquirer.

Our townsman, Mr Kenneth R. Wise, left last Thursday for Raleigh, and will probably make it his home in the future. He is loved and respected by all who know him, and it is with regret that we have to lose him in our midst. Much success to you, Ken.

Murfreesboro Enquirer.

There is no time now for quarrels and bickerings from disappointed office seekers. Let every Democrat work for the success and harmony of the party. If there are any who are unwilling to do this, they treacherous and will not do to trust. Note them, fellow Democrats, Congressional Nominations.

FOR CONGRESS, THIRD DISTRICT.
ALFRED M, WADDELL,
of New Hanover.

FOR CONGRESS, SEVENTH DISTRICT,
ROBERT F. ARMFIELD, of Iredell.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5TH.

Congressional Convention.

A Convention of the Democrats and Conservatives of the Fourth District, will be held in the city of Raleigh, on Thursday the 22nd day of August next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress. Each county will be entitled to one vote for every one hundred votes and fractional part over fifty, given for Gov. Vance in 1876.

By order of District Ex. Committee,
H. A. LONDON, Jr.
July 2, 1878. Chairman.

The Democratic papers in the District will please copy.

IS THE Radical party now sufficiently negro-ized to match the color of its record?

DO Independent Democrats approve and endorse the nominations of negro Solicitors and Congressmen?

CAPTAIN WM. A. DARDEN, the Democratic candidate in Greene for the House of Representatives, will be elected and prove a good and able legislator.

Let Mr. Snow ask Mr. Bledsoe if he shall support the negro Collins for Solicitor, and does he approve the color line as drawn at Tarboro and Goldsboro?

Put it to the Radical and Independent candidates to say if they are prepared to fight it out on this color line drawn by the negroes in the Second Judicial and Second Congressional Districts.

CAPTAIN SWIFT GALLOWAY has entered in earnest on his campaign for Solicitor. His speeches are terrible arraignments of the Republican party, and masterly efforts for strength and eloquence.

MARK Erwin is again on the track for Solicitor in the Ninth District. He and Wm. G. Candler are opposing independents to Capt, Ferguson, the regular Democratic nominee.

James E. O'Hara, the colored congressional nominee, is the same Anglo-American gentleman of African descent whom the Republicans put on their electoral ticket in 1876, and then took off before the election. Let the people of the counties remember this.

The Democrats of Surry and Yadkin have nominated for the Senate, Richmond Pearson, Esq., son of the late Chief Justice. Inheriting the talents of his distinguished father, Mr. Pearson will make his mark in the Senate, and impress himself on the politics of the State.

THE negroes may raise the cry again that demagogues have used them, but it is too late now for that sort of thing. The black flag is up for the second time, and let it stay there. The white people know how to take care of themselves; and the negroes will find that the blood of race is thicker than the water of politics.

WHO put James H. Harris on the track of Colonel Humphrey's free negro record of 1858? Twenty years is a long way back for the negroes to go to find a pretext for drawing anew the color line in North Carolina. It ante-dates their history. A people should not go behind their civilization for resentments. They had no political wrongs until they were invested with political rights.

Triumph of Diplomacy.

That peace hath her victories no less renowned than war, has been amply illustrated by the diplomacy of England in acquiring, through secret treaty with Turkey, the Island of Cyprus in the Mediterranean Sea, and her protectorate over Asiatic Turkey.

The Turk in Europe has long been a standing reproach, a menace and a disgrace to the christian civilization of the old world, and when Russia struck her blow for the relief of the christians in Turkey, it was the secret wish of all the world that it might result in driving the Turks out of Europe. This has well nigh been accomplished. The Turkish Empire is dismembered, its provinces either absolutely or partially set free, the Turk put upon his good behavior, and his dominions reduced to the size of one of the medium States of the American Union. He is virtually shut up in Constantinople, stripped of power and robbed of territory, while England assumes the protectorate over his Asiatic possessions, and becomes the possessor of the of the Island of Cyprus, the key of the highway to the East.

In this arrangement the Russian acquiesces, because he set out ostensibly, for the relief of the Christians—a step which he said all Europe would applaud—but for no purpose of conquest. The powers have seen to it that he acquires virtually no territory, and makes no perceptible encroachments westward. He conquered Turkey, and then the powers came in and sat down to dismember her. The small slice of Bessarabia satisfies the Russian Bear. Greece gets portions of Epirus and Thessaly; Austria Bosnia and Herzegovina; Roumania and Servia become independent, and Bulgaria, North of the Balkans, quasi-independent, while South of that range of mountains she remains a tributary principality. It will be seen by this that the Turk is pretty well out of Europe, and only lies "dreaming of the hour" when he will go altogether. Prince Milan has already proclaimed the independence of Servia, in accordance with the treaty of San Stefano, approved by the Congress at Berlin. Prince Gortchakoff approves of the arrangement, sees nothing objectionable in English occupation of Cyprus, and will always be pleased with everything tending to strengthen England's road to India because calculated to promote the prosperity of the whole world. There are still some speculations as to details, but it is believed that the Eastern question is settled, and the work of the Congress practically over. A move, it is thought, may be made by the Roman Catholic Albanians on the confines of Bosnia and Herzegovina, who desire to be incorporated by Austria. In such cases Italy is expected to occupy Albania, and to offer to change it for South Tyrol.

THE Western North Carolina Railroad will run trains from Salisbury to Henry on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, connecting closely with trains on the North Carolina Railroad from Goldsboro and Raleigh to Charlotte. Passengers leaving Raleigh at 5.25 p. m. connect with the midnight train on the Western North Carolina road at Salisbury, breakfast at Henry station, and reach Asheville at eleven o'clock in the morning, making the trip in seventeen hours. This is the quickest time ever made to the West. Though President Wilson does not say so in his letter to the News, it is understood that sleeping cars will run through on these night trains. Round trip tickets, good for the season, on sale at all stations on the North Carolina Railroad, for either the Salisbury and Henry, Spartanburg and Hendersonville, or Danville and Lynchburg routes, to Western North Carolina.

THE Goldsboro Messenger says the white Republicans were thoroughly disgusted at the nomination of O'Hara. The Messenger says that his nomination over such men as Humphrey, Brogden, Stanton, Moore and King is an insult to the people of this district, that cannot be too severely rebuked. For brazen effrontery he has no equal, and of all the colored men voted for he was supposed to be the least likely to receive the nomination. It is a bad spirit that has beset the colored people, but it is not our funeral, nor the funeral of the Democratic party, we must try and do the best we can. The blacks have now drawn the color line in unmistaken terms; the whites can and must accept it. It was apparent throughout the proceedings that the negroes were determined upon nominating one of their color, and no concealment of this was attempted, and on the "color line" the nomination was made.

MATTERS political are mixing somewhat in the Piedmont region. The Winston Sentinel announces that William Bennett is an Independent candidate for the House in Surry and L. J. Norman for Clerk in the same county, as an Independent Republican. Dr. J. L. Johnson has announced himself an Independent Republican for Senator from Forsyth and Stokes. George B. Everett, a young lawyer of Winston, and native, by the way, of Wayne county, is also an Independent Republican candidate for the Senate. Colonel Sam Hughes and Squire Venable, of Stokes, are Independent candidates for the House from Stokes, Mr. Venable a Republican, Mr. Hughes a no party man. The opposition of J. C. Foard, Esq., of Davie, to Captain John S. Henderson, of Rowan, for the Senate, grew out of the question as to which county was this year entitled to the Senator. A. H. Joyce, of Danbury, is a candidate for Solicitor. Col. John A. Winston, the Greenbacker, is running for Congress, not in the hope of beating Scales, but merely to get the greenback issues before the people.

Amazing Nonsense.

It was altogether unnecessary for the Asheville Pioneer to have made an ass of itself as it has done in an article on the Fall Superior Court ridings, under the head of "amazing insolence."

Judge Buxton communicated to the News the Fall ridings as agreed upon by Judges Eure, Seymour, McKoy, Kerr, Schenck and himself, which agreement was understood to have been by correspondence. In the letter from Judge Buxton, the Judges of the seventh, eighth and ninth districts were put down as "to be elected."

The News, in making an article on the Fall ridings, used the names of Judges Graves, Avery and Gudger, merely for convenience, and because there was not then nor is there now the slightest doubt of their election. Not one of them has ever been consulted about the Fall ridings, or in the slightest manner recognized as a Judge by any Judge on the bench, and when the Pioneer intimates that Graves, Avery and Gudger had anything to do with the matter, or got together and "agreed among themselves on the riding for the Fall circuits of 1878," it simply assumes its premises for a false statement, and makes its own opportunity for a gratuitous assault upon those gentlemen, as unmerited as it is mean in the spirit of its conception and unbecoming in the manner of its execution.

The arrangement was not made in Raleigh at all. The three new Judges, that will be, were not here when the announcement was made. It came from Fayetteville, through Judge Buxton, and excepting perhaps Judge Seymour, who was holding his court here, there was perhaps not a gentleman in the city of Raleigh who knew anything about the agreement as to the proposed ridings until it was published in the papers. It was a matter altogether with the six Judges whose terms run until 1882, and Graves, Avery and Gudger had nothing, whatever, to do with it, and by no possibility could have had any hand in the arrangement.

If there was any display of "amazing insolence" previous to the nonsensical performance of the Pioneer, it was on the part of the News, and in respect to that it feels able to take care of itself.

SOME weeks since the organ of the Greensboro Radical Ring—the Dick Douglas Dynasty Defender—startled the Democratic party and the balance of mankind, by gravely announcing mysteriously an approaching comet toward the political planet that would drive destruction through the Western Democratic ranks. It was even declared that the universally acceptable Supreme Court ticket would be knocked into a cocked hat. The foreshadowed events have transpired. A labor party meeting was held at held at Hendersonville Gen. R. M. Henry and Captain Cocke declared themselves Independent candidates for Judge in Buncombe Colonel Mark Erwin came out for Solicitor, and went back. W. G. Candler, Esq., is still in the field for Solicitor; Col. John R. Winston, of Caswell, has declared for Congress; and a meeting is called at Winston for the people of Forsyth and Stokes to meet and form a National party, and put a Legislative ticket in the field. These things are well calculated to take the stiffening out of the Democratic party in the West. Under such circumstances one feels for the Western Democracy.

THE Asheville Pioneer, Republican organ of the Ninth Congressional District, announces with evident satisfaction that Merrimon men are declaring themselves throughout the State as Independent candidates for the Legislature," Merrimon set the example of independence, which is but another name for party disorganization, six years ago, and thereby won a seat in the United States Senate. It should not be suprising that now his friends and followers likewise disregard party nominations, run independently for the Legislature, hoping to succeed through the demoralization they may be able to produce in the Democratic ranks. The example of Judge Merrimon, as was foreseen, is bearing its legitimate fruits. His friends follow him. Not one word has he spoken to indicate that he does not propose another independent contest.

CAPT. JOHN H. SHACKLEFORD, Senatorial nominee for Carteret, Jones and Onslow, and A. H. Chadwick, Esq., for the House, in Carteret, began their canvass of Carteret at Cedar Island on Wednesday. The News' correspondent at Beaufort says that Carteret will this year roll up a Democratic majority of five hundred. The Senatorial and House nominees are solid men.

TESTIMONIAL.

The success which the Kenmore High School has achieved under the energetic and conscientious administration of the Principal and his able Assistant, and the preparation and training of its pupils, who have entered the University of Virginia, have fully justified the recommendation of this excellent school to the public, at its beginning. I regard it as a very successful educational foundation, and I trust it will continue for many years to do its good work for our State and country.

ELECTION THURSDAY, AUGUST 1ST.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——For other local matter see first page.

——The M. D.'s continue to complain of the healthfulness of the city this season.

——The Register of Deeds has had prepared the ballot boxes for the August elections.

——The court house wears a deserted appearance, most of the officials being absent on the county canvass.

——The State Treasurer has issued drummers' licenses to Wilson, Burns & Co., Baltimore, and C. S. Parsons & Sons, N. Y.

——There are now twelve prisoners in our county jail, two of whom are white. Two are held for capital offences.

——Quite a party of gentlemen will leave on Monday for Beaufort. Thou shalt not envy thy neighbor, but hope it will be thy turn next.

——Such is the heat of the weather that it damps the ardor of even the most ardent politicians. Politics are like base ball, always come in during hottest days.

——Col. D. M. Carter, President of the Board of Directors State Penitentiary, has drawn $9,833, being the sum appropriated for maintenance of convicts, construction of buildings &c., for the current month.

——An excursion will leave Goldsboro on the 23d, for Beaufort. If each of the excursions to mountain and sea takes away a few of our people, this section will be soon depopulated. An excursion to the north pole would take just now.

——Messrs. Kingsley & Ashley, builders, are at work on a handsome residence to be occupied by Geo. H. Snow, Esq., the next Senator from this county. The building is on Boylan avenue, and is 40x80, two stories high, with towers &c.

Mayor's Court.

Haywood Bryan and Lena White, both negroes, appeared on a charge of indulging in a pugilistic affray in Hell's Half Acre. For their fondness for the "manly art" they were made to pay $5 and costs each.

Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D.

This eminent and talented divine leaves to day for Chapel Hill, to deliver an address before the Normal School. His subject will be "The English Language." On Sunday he will exchange pulpits with Rev. A. C. Dixon, of the Baptist church in Chapel Hill.

The Blue and the Grey.

Programmes of the grand Re-union of the officers and soldiers, North and South, to be held at Marietta, Ohio, September 3d to 6th, have been distributed. The idea of the brave men of both armies thus meeting and pleasantly fighting over their battles is one most pleasant.

Cheap Insurance.

S. D. Waitt, Esq., General Agent for the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, has shown us a renewal payment on policy No. 5,540 for $2,000. Twenty-seventh annual. Annual premium $66 20, dividend on same $43.20 or nearly 77 per cent. leaving only $13. to pay in cash, or $6 50 per thousand.

Excursion to Apex.

We hope our Democratic friends will turn out in force to-day by going to Apex and by their presence encourage our gallant standard bearers who are fighting against great odds in the present campaign. If our Raleigh friends will do their whole duty in this campaign Wake county will be redeemed

Oak City Jockey Club—Fine Stock and Quick Time.

Through the enterprise of Ed. H. Lee, Esq., and Mr. Pomeroy, the latter a noted trainer, a very pleasant race was gotten up yesterday at the new Fair Grounds. The horses entered for the ½ mile running race were Mr. Dunn's b. m. "Rhododendron," Mr. Lee's "Planet," and Mr. J. D. Whitaker's "Tabby Bitters." Rhododendron was winner, time 44½, Tabby Bitters second, time 47½.

The next was a mule race. These beasts started will, but could'nt hold to the track, so the race was declared off.

Quite a number of gentlemen were on hand, while many ladies graced the occasion by their presence. It is whispered that several dollars changed hands on the result. Some elegant turn outs were on the ground.

The Approaching State Fair.

The Executive Committee of the N. C. Agricultural Society held an interesting and important meeting at the Yarbrough House on Thursday evening 11th, inst.; A. Creech, Esq., in the chair, and C. B. Denson, Secretary. The meeting was well attended, and its proceedings terminated at so late an hour as to preclude publication yesterday.

A communication was received from Adjt. Genl. Johnstone Jones in relation to the arrangements in progress for the encampment of the State Guard at the approaching fair, and affording the gratifying information that indications promised a brilliant succes It will be the largest display of volunteer troops in the Southern States ever assembled in time of peace

Many interesting details of the t encampment will be shortly given t public.

On motion of Mr. Nichols the S tary was requested to furnish copi f the rules of target practice, in the petition for the champion flag, t o Adgt. General's office, for distribution throughout the State. [This will be done as soon as finally corrected and received from the printer, at an early day.]

A communication was received from the Department of the Interior, accompanying a large number of valuable public reports and documents, furnished to the library of the North Carolina Agricultural Society through the kindness of the Hon. Jos. J. Davis, Representative from this District. This courtesy is gratefully acknowledged by the Committee.

Various communications were read and appropriately referred, and the Secretary presented a large number of letters contributing valuable articles, live stock, &c., for the fair. Among these were the finest hogs ever donated to the Society, contributed by Geo. W. Harris, manager of the "Brightside" Farm, Morrisania, N. Y., the great stock farm of Richard M. Hoe. Mr. Harris is the first authority in America in the breeding and care of swine, as is well known. He says that the "Small Yorkshire" and "Berkshire" he will send entered as thoroughbred stock without the presentation of a certified pedigree. This rule will not be applied to swine.

On motion of Col. D. M. Carter, the Committee resolved to take steps for the supply of necessary Herd Books, &c., for the careful testing of pedigrees offered.

There will of course, be liberal premiums offered for the best cross-bred and grade cattle.

Supreme Court.

Regatta and Ball.

On the 16th prox., there will be a regatta of the boats of Beaufort harbor, boats from New Berne, and from points on the coast. The reputation of our boatman is such that an exciting contest may be looked for. The excitements of the day will be enhanced by the grand ball which will be given at the Atlantic Hotel in the evening. The elegant ball room will then show a scene seldom equaled.

Personals.

Mrs. Mory Bayard Clarke, of New Berne, one of our literati, who has been on a visit to relatives in the city, returned to the little City of Elms yesterday.

Col. W. P. Roberts, of Gates, is in the city.

Duncan McRae, Esq., of Wilmington, and J. S. Carr, Esq., of Durham are at the Yarbrough.

W. R. Richardson, Esq., who has been quite ill, is now convalescent.

Watering Place Notes.

Col. A. D. Jenkins and wife are at the Warm Springs.

Col. J. M. Heck and family are at Alleghany Springs, Va. There are now over one hundred guests at this place, and two hundred more are expected. Among the number will be the families of Hons. R. R. Bridgers and Geo. Davis.

The Biblical Recorder.

This sterling religious journal was never in so prosperous a condition as at present. Its success during the past year has been enviable. Through its columns is now being discussed the propriety of country churches holding religious meetings oftener than once a month, as is now the custom. The arguments adduced tend to prove that it is just as convenient and better to hold meetings oftener.

Blindly Groping

For some medicinal alcoholic resuscitant of physical energy, which should take the place of the heady and frequently adulterated stimulants of commerce, the medical practitioners of a quarter of a century ago were electrified on first observing the reviving effects upon the system of a tonic then recently introduced, but which has since become the most popular medicine sold on this continent, viz.: Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Their astonishment and admiration were increased when experience further disclosed that this botanic remedy effected results which the mineral drugs of the pharmacopœia often utterly fail d to produce,—among others, the permanent restoration of vigor, the removal of digestive, secretive and evacuative irregularities, and the eradication and prevention of periodic fevers. Speedy recognition of the merits of the Bitters by unprejudiced and enlightened physicians naturally followed this revelation of medical facts, which have since received such frequent and positive confirmation. *
